

FIMBY Tomatoes 2010

Variety	Description
Medium or Big red ones
Moneymaker	Climbing. English heirloom prior to 1920's. Scarlet, round, solid flesh to 115g. High yields
Brandywine	Climbing. Amish heirloom 1885. Large red pink fruits to 500g. Great flavour.
Bush Burwood prize	Bush . Heirloom introduced 1900. Scarlet red flattened. Prolific.
Small red ones
Red fig	Climbing. Rare American heirloom, named after a sugary sweet which was popular during the mid 1800's. Historically, they were dried before being stored & used during the winter as a substitute for figs. Small, bright red fruit to 4cm across with very sweet skin. Rich, full tomato flavour. High yields. Eaten fresh or for use in jams & chutneys.
Baby red Pear	Small red pear shaped fruit on tall vigorous bush. High yields
Red cherry cocktail	Climbing. Small round red fruits produced in clusters. High yield. Produces over long period. Vigorous climber
Whippersnapper	Bush . Small reddish pink oval fruit. Sweet flavour. Early variety. Compact. High yields
Bush Tiny Tim	Bush . Small red fruit small bush 50 cm high Ornamental and productive. Ideal for small area or pots.
Cooking / drying / preserving
Principe borghese	Climbing Heirloom. Red plum shaped fruits to 60g, produces in clusters. Few seeds. Ideal for drying
San Marzano	Climbing. Gourmet Italian heirloom. Medium pear shaped. Ideal for preserving
Amish paste	Climbing. Amish heirloom. Acorn shaped deep red fruit up to 250g
Bush-Roma	Bush . Italian heirloom. Strong stocky plant red smooth pear shaped fruit. Heavy producer
Napoli paste	Bush . Deep red pear shaped, medium sized fruit. Italian paste type. High yields. Disease resistant
Interesting colours
Tigerella	Climbing. Heirloom. Medium sized fruit, orange stripes, rich tangy flavour. Prolific
Siberian	Climbing. Rich red egg shaped fruit to 50g. High yields Early variety suited to short growing seasons
Black Russian	Climbing. Russian heirloom. Round reddish-black medium sized fruit. Disease resistant. Early producer. Good for salads and cooking.
Cherokee purple	Climbing. Heirloom. over 100 years old from Cherokee Native Americans. One of 1 st black tomatoes. Medium sized. High yields.